Special GAIN New Years Eve Program

Representatives from the American Healing Arts Alliance Inc. non-profit will be participating in the Second Annual Annapolis New Year's Eve Interfaith Celebration on December 31, 2010. The event will be held at the Eastport United Methodist Church, 926 Bay Ridge Avenue, Annapolis, Maryland, 21403. The program will be held from 7:00pm-8:00pm with music beginning at 6:30pm.

This special event is being sponsored by The Greater Annapolis Interfaith Network (GAIN) which includes representatives from area faith groups, community service agencies and non-profit organizations.

A variety of readings, prayers and songs will offered for the occasion by community leaders and GAIN member groups.

AHAA President, Alice Yeager will be doing a reading from A Course in Miracles in representation of AHAA's A Course in Miracles study group. The reading Alice will be offering is from ACIM's Text, Chapter 16, Section VII titled "The End of Illusions".

As a self-study course A Course in Miracles specifically states that "a universal theology is impossible, but a universal experience is not only possible but necessary" (ACIM Manual, p. 77)

The ACIM course deals with universal spiritual themes. It emphasizes it is but one version of the universal curriculum. There are many others, this one differing from them only in form.

All are welcome to attend this uniquely interfaith event in Annapolis and invited to stay beyond 8:00pm for refreshments offered at the conclusion of the program.
