The Art of PSI: Remote Viewing and Precognitive Dreaming

Presented by author

Dale Graff, M.S. Physics

Saturday, April 17, 2010

9:00am - 5:00pm

Includes one-hour potluck lunch

Sunday, April 18, 2010

Two-hour dream study follow-up

Sunday time TBD by participants

Do you know what it is like to have extrasensory perception (ESP) abilities? Are you a “sensitive” yourself or know someone who is? How do these abilities relate to dreams and visual impressions as remote viewing? Join author Dale E. Graff on a creative adventure that explores these psychic or psi, abilities and discover how they can be routinely integrated into your personal and professional life. This is a challenging, informative and enlightening workshop for all attendees designed to expand your mental horizons!

In this intensive workshop you will learn how to:

- Enhance your psi potentials in either the awake or sleep state
- Work with ordinary and psi dreams
- Evaluate suspected psi information
- Insightfully respond to psi information

This workshop has an equal mix of dialogue and experiential projects in intuition, ESP and remote viewing. Some examples are based on his book, RIVER DREAMS: The Case of the Missing General and Other Adventures in Psychic Research.

An optional psi or precognitive dream exercise will be available for Saturday night.
